- 80) To indicate an indirect free kick, the referees should:
- Hold a single arm straight up until the ball is put into play
  - Hold a single arm straight up until the ball is touched by a second player, or goes out of play.
  - Point in the direction of the kick and verbally announce the type of free kick.
  - No hand signal is necessary.
- 81) The proper position for an Assistant Referee at the taking of a corner kick from the Referee's corner is
- In line with the goal line, behind the corner flag
  - In line with the goal line, in front of the corner flag
  - In line with the ball
  - Even with the second to last defender

- 82) The recommended position for the trail referee at the taking of a corner kick from the lead referee's corner is
- In the center circle
  - At the halfway line
  - Approximately at the corner of the penalty area, on the trail referee's side of the field
  - At the intersection of the penalty area and the goal line
- 83) The proper position for an Assistant Referee during play is
- Along the touchline
  - Normally outside the field of play
  - Even with the second to last defender on his/her half of the field of play, or the ball, whichever is closer to the goal line
  - All of the above, simultaneously
- 84) An Assistant Referee indicates an offside offense by:
- Raising the flag vertically with the right arm
  - Raising the flag vertically and waving it until acknowledged by the referee
  - Raising the flag vertically until acknowledged by the referee, then waving the flag and pointing in the direction of the kick.
  - Raising the flag at a 45 degree angle
- 85) An Assistant Referee indicates a foul by:
- Raising the flag vertically with the right arm
  - Raising the flag vertically and waving it until acknowledged by the referee
  - Raising the flag vertically until acknowledged by the referee, then waving the flag and pointing in the direction of the kick.
  - Raising the flag at a 45 degree angle
- 86) (Beginning with the 2018-19 season) The home team shall wear:
- Solid white jerseys and solid white socks
  - Dark jerseys and socks
  - (the NFHS Rules no longer stipulate what colors the teams wear, so long as they contrast with each other)
- 87) (Beginning with the 2018-19 season) All players must be in their own half of the field at the moment of the kick off.
- True
  - False – players may be anywhere, on either side of the halfway line
  - False – one player from each team may be in the opposing half of the field
  - False – the player taking the kick off may be in the opposing half of the field
- 88) (Beginning with the 2018-19 season) In an attempt to play the ball, a player within his/her team penalty area commits an offense against an opponent which denies the opponent an obvious goal-scoring opportunity and the referee awards a penalty kick. The player committing the foul shall be:
- Cautioned (yellow card) for Unsporting Conduct
  - Disqualified (red card) for Serious Foul Play
  - Verbally warned (no card) for Playing Carelessly
  - (because a penalty kick was awarded, no further action is mandated)

- 89) (Beginning with the 2018-19 season) While not attempting to play the ball, a player within his/her team penalty area commits an offense against an opponent which denies the opponent an obvious goal-scoring opportunity and the referee awards a penalty kick. The player committing the foul shall be:
- Cautioned (yellow card) for Unsporting Conduct
  - Disqualified (red card) for Serious Foul Play
  - Verbally warned (no card) for Playing Carelessly
  - (because a penalty kick was awarded, no further action is mandated)
- 90) B2 pulls A10 off the ball just outside the penalty area, but in the process A10 sends a pass that is collected by A11 in the penalty area, and then A11 scores. Having clearly seen the foul, the correct referee action is to:
- Disallow the goal, restart with a direct free kick from the point where the foul occurred.
  - Disallow the goal, caution the defender and restart with a corner kick to the attacking team.
  - Based on the "advantage clause," allow the goal and restart with a kickoff. The referee has discretionary power to caution B2.
  - Disallow the goal, caution the defender and restart with a penalty kick to the attacking team.
- 91) A8 shoots the ball toward team B's goal. The ball strikes B7's hand, denying team A's goal. In the opinion of the referee, that was not a deliberate act by B7. The referee should:
- Award a goal to team A
  - Award a penalty kick to team A and disqualify (red card) B7
  - Award a penalty kick to team A and caution (yellow card) B7
  - Allow play to continue
- 92) A shot is taken by A2 and rebounds off the goalpost to A3, who was in an offside position at the moment of the shot. A3 controls the ball and plays it into team B's goal. The proper restart is:
- Team B kickoff (award the goal).
  - Team B goal kick.
  - Team B direct free kick.
  - Team B indirect free kick.
- 93) A7 takes a corner kick that hits the goalpost and rebounds directly back to A7, who then kicks the ball directly into the goal. The referee should:
- Allow the goal and restart with a kick off for team B.
  - Not allow the goal and restart with a team B indirect free kick.
  - Not allow the goal and caution A7.
  - Not allow the goal and show A7 a red card.
- 94) B3 realizes that his or her position is holding the attacking team outside in the penalty area and steps off the field over the goal line. Meanwhile a shot comes off the goalpost and is collected by A9, who now appears to be in an offside position solely because B3 is not on the field. A9 shoots and scores.
- A9 is offside; award an indirect free kick to the defensive team.
  - The referee should do nothing - no infraction has taken place. Award a goal and restart with a team B kickoff.
  - Disqualify B3 for attempting to circumvent/cheat the rules.
  - Award a goal, caution B3, and restart with a team B kickoff.

- 95) After a bit of clever footwork that fools B3, A10 returns to B3 and says, "You're nothing. I beat you."
- Red card (disqualification) for A10.
  - Yellow card (caution) for A10.
  - Yellow and red displayed together ("soft red") for A10.
  - Under no circumstances would this be deemed misconduct.
- 96) With the certified athletic trainer called to attend to A9, team A's coach enters the field and gathers the players to instruct them for the restart.
- Allow the coach's instruction.
  - Invite the opposing coach to instruct his or her players.
  - Caution the coach for coaching outside the designated team area.
  - Verbally admonish the coach for coaching outside the team area.
- 97) Defender B15 plays in a dangerous manner while in her own goal area. The referee should stop play and
- Award a penalty kick to team A.
  - Award a direct free kick to team A at the spot of the foul.
  - Award an indirect free kick to team A at the spot of the foul.
  - Award an indirect free kick to team A to be taken from the top of the goal area nearest where the offence occurred.
- 98) Player A6 plays in a dangerous manner by bringing his foot in close proximity to his teammate A8's face. The referee should:
- Stop play and award an indirect free kick to team B.
  - Stop play and award a direct free kick to team B.
  - Stop play and restart with a drop ball.
  - Do nothing as the action involved teammates not opponents.
- 99) (Beginning with the 2018-19 season) Player A8 kicks the ball with pace a short distance away from opponent B2. The ball strikes B2's arm as he reacts by shielding his face. The referee should:
- Award a direct free kick to team A for deliberate handling by B2
  - Award an indirect free kick to team A for unintentional handling by B2
  - Take no action as no offence has occurred
  - Only stop play if B2's reaction gives his team an advantage
- 100) A goal may be scored directly from a dropped ball restart, i.e. the first touch by a player may directly result in a goal.
- True
  - False
